

School Uniform Policy

Drumbaragh National School, Drumbaragh, Kells, Co. Meath.

Roll Number: 10801Q

Drumbaragh National School operates a compulsory school uniform policy for all its pupils, without exception. The rationale in support of this policy is as follows:

- A school uniform helps to create a better learning environment by promoting self-discipline and reduces distractions.
- A school uniform gives all pupils an important sense of identity and belonging to the school community and encourages pride in the school.
- A uniform makes all pupils equal and eliminates unhealthy competition and peer pressure to dress a certain way.
- Our school uniform is cost effective, practical, comfortable, and safe to wear in the school environment.
- Wearing a school uniform represents a visible commitment to the rules and policies of Drumbaragh National School.

The Official Uniform of Drumbaragh National school

- ❖ Half Zip Navy & Blue School Tracksuit Top
- ❖ Navy School Tracksuit Bottoms or Navy School Crested Shorts
- ❖ Blue Polo T-Shirt
